Spiritual Life in Anabaptism

Translated & edited by Cornelius J. Dyck

From the 16th century to the present, many people have associated Anabaptism with ethics rather than a vibrant faith. Featuring the writings of Menno Simons, Pilgram Marpeck, Balthasar Hubmaier, and others, this collection shows they had much to say about knowing God, trusting Jesus, and relating faith to day-to-day issues. 310 pages, softcover from Herald.
