Lies Women Believe

Since Eve's first bite of the apple, women have believed lies that leave them feeling confused, rejected, overwhelmed, and fearful. DeMoss exposes these deceptions—about sin, priorities, relationships, emotions, and more—and compassionately sets you on the path to deliverance. Liberate yourself from the bondage of busyness and negative thinking, and experience God's forgiveness and freedom! 288 pages, softcover from Moody.

Follow Me

What did Jesus really mean when he said "Follow me"? Building on the lessons from his bestseller Radical, Platt explores Jesus' invitation to experience the grand purpose for which we've been created—to make disciples who are making disciples. Discover a relationship with Christ that's marked by self-denial, single-minded ambition, and ultimate joy. Introduction by Francis Chan. 245 pages, softcover from Tyndale.

The Messianic Passover Haggadah

Barry & Steffi Rubin

Many Christians have seen marvelous glimpses of their faith in the Jewish Passover meal. Now families and churches can celebrate God's redemption in an authentic messianic Passover meal. This beautifully produced 5½" x 8½" booklet features a simple "liturgy," which explains the messianic significance of each food and ritual of the Passover Seder. 32 pages, from Lederer.

Instruments in the Redeemer's Hands

Paul David Tripp

Too many modern congregations are rich in consumers who are poor on commitment. Reminding us that church isn't a club but a calling, Tripp argues that God hasn't left our spiritual growth in the hands of "trained professionals." Discover how God uses his people—each one in need of refinement—to transform one another! 368 pages, softcover from P&R.

Abraham

Obeying God's command to leave his own country, Abraham faced famine, war, and Pharaoh's might before settling in the Promised Land. But why are we still discussing the faith of this desert nomad thousands of years later? Shedding fresh insight on Abraham's story, Swindoll addresses that question and others in this compelling biography. 280 pages, hardcover from Tyndale.

The Upper Room

During the final hours before his betrayal, Jesus gave his disciples the upper room discourse—essentially his last will and testament—in which he shared some of God's most powerful promises for his children. Taking you back to that night, MacArthur provides a thoughtful exposition of John 13–16 and what it reveals about our inheritance as believers. 224 pages, hardcover from Kress.

Twelve Ordinary Men

Uneducated fishermen, political outsiders, religious outcasts, and a despised tax collector. The disciples weren't heroic trailblazers before Jesus called them. MacArthur reacquaints you with Christ's first followers, explains how they were "shaped for greatness," shows how God delights in using imperfect people to accomplish his perfect will, and helps you discover God's extraordinary plans for you! 224 pages, softcover from Nelson.

I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist

Norman L. Geisler & Frank Turek

All worldviews—including atheism—require faith. But some belief systems are more reasonable than others! Geisler and Turek make the case that Christianity requires the least faith of all because so much evidence points toward the existence of God and the reliability of Scripture. An engaging, easy-to-follow defense for Christians and skeptics. 447 pages, softcover from Crossway.

It's Not What You Think

When you hear the label "Christian," what descriptive words come to mind? If you ask somebody outside the faith, you may not get a flattering answer! In this 8-session study, Andy Stanley asks "What would happen if we got it right?" and zeroes in on the qualities that should characterize Jesus' followers. 2½-hour DVD includes participant's guide.

Follow—DVD Curriculum

What does it mean to follow Jesus? Religion says, "Change and you can join us." Jesus says, "Join me and you will change." He doesn't demand perfection from us; he longs for our devotion. In Andy Stanley's 8-session DVD study, you'll journey through the Gospels discovering what being a follower truly entails. DVD includes participant's guide.

Agents of the Apocalypse

Are we living in the end times? Are the villains and saints in the Book of Revelation walking among us? Would we recognize them? Focusing on Revelation's key players—the exiled; martyrs; elders; king; judge; 144,000 witnesses; false prophet; and beast—Jeremiah examines their motives and provides critical clues to help us identify their presence in today's world. 300 pages, hardcover from Tyndale.

The Coming Economic Armageddon

Today's news is filled with jarring headlines, distressing analyses, and dire predictions concerning the world's financial future. Did Bible prophecy predict this catastrophe? Is the monetary collapse a sign of the end times? Jeremiah reveals the meaning behind what we read and hear—and shows you how to understand and live in the new global economy. 320 pages, softcover from Faithwords.

Angels

For centuries, men, women, and children have been fascinated by stories of angel sightings. Responding to this interest in heavenly beings and their role in our world, Dr. Jeremiah provides an in-depth, biblical look at God's messengers—incorporating the thoughts of Billy Graham, Corrie ten Boom, C.S. Lewis, and others. Eye-opening! 240 pages, softcover from Multnomah.

Rediscovering the Power of Scripture Today

Often underlying religious, social, cultural, and political debate, the authority of the Bible is a hot-button issue among conservatives and progressives. How should we interpret and apply Scripture? Forging a commonsense path, Hamilton addresses the relationship of the Bible to science, history, social values, and other topics to help you better understand and apply its principles. 256 pages, hardcover from HarperOne.

The Ragamuffin Gospel

Brennan Manning

Are you missing the joy of grace? Many Christians criticize themselves, feeling perpetually guilty when they don't measure up to God's standard. In his classic bestseller, Manning explains that God loves us rags and all, accepting us for what we are, not for what we do. Now includes "19 Mercies: A Spiritual Retreat." 268 pages, softcover from Multnomah.

His Princess

Love Letters from Your King

Sheri Rose Shepherd

Even though you don't wear a tiara while doing laundry or ermine robes when grocery shopping, you're a princess nonetheless! Shepherd's collection of adoring letters from the King will help you "polish" your self-image—tarnished by personal insecurities and society's false standards—and see yourself as God's beloved daughter. An encouraging, biblical, and confidence-building read! 192 pages, hardcover from Multnomah.

Simply Good News

The gospel has been around for 2,000 years—but what is "newsworthy" about it? And what makes it good? Believing that today's Christians have lost sight of its true meaning, Wright demonstrates how a first-century audience would have received the message, what the "good news" really is, and how it can transform our lives today. 208 pages, hardcover from HarperOne.

Secrets of the Vine

The Prayer of Jabez showed you how to ask for an abundant life. Now Wilkinson reveals how God works to answer that prayer! Based on John 15, Secrets shares how God's loving discipline and selective pruning—though painful—yield bountiful harvests of healthy fruit. And you'll reap life-changing insights into his command to "abide in me." 126 pages, hardcover from Multnomah.

Church Growth

Sticky Church

Larry Osborne

If you want your church to grow, closing the back door might be more important than opening the front door wider! Osborne offers time-tested strategies for doing just that. Learn why he believes most discipleship models aren't effective; why small groups make churches honest; what makes congregations grow deeper and "stickier"; and more. 208 pages, softcover from Zondervan.

Scot McKnight

What is the church supposed to be? According to McKnight, it is God's world-changing social experiment, bringing likes and unlikes together at the same table to share in a new kind of family—instead of a place where everybody thinks alike. Discover what can happen when love, justice, peace, and reconciliation flow from the diversity God created! 240 pages, hardcover from Zondervan.

Theology

Greg Gilbert

What Is the Gospel?

Beginning with Paul's presentation in Romans and moving through the sermons in Acts, Gilbert argues that the central structure of the gospel consists of four main subjects: God, man, Christ, and our response. He carefully examines each and then explores the effects God's good news can have on individuals, churches, and the world. 128 pages, hardcover from Crossway.

Who Is Jesus?

A man violently rejected by some and passionately worshiped by others, Jesus remains as polarizing as ever—and many still know very little about him. Intended as a succinct introduction to Jesus' life, words, and enduring significance, Gilbert's resource also challenges skeptics to seriously evaluate Christ's radical claims. Ideal for non-Christians and new believers. 128 pages, softcover from Crossway.

Seeing Jesus in the Old Testament

Nancy Guthrie

Jesus often used the Old Testament to explain who he was and why he came. Exploring Christ in the people, promises, and patterns of Scripture, each 10-session study led by Nancy Guthrie offers relevant teaching and thoughtful discussion questions that will help you gain fresh perspectives.
