Louie Giglio

Hi, fellow pastors and leaders!

What an amazing opportunity as we head into the fall full of promise, setting our sights on the holiday season and the hope of Christmas. From fall retreats to Christmas candlelight celebrations, I know your schedule will be full. Yet, these next few months are such a great time to invite those around us into the story of God's mercy and grace.

If you're like me, the temptation is always there to take on additional stress and worry as the end of the year approaches. We live in an anxious culture, and I know firsthand that pastors are not exempt from the crippling grip of fear and depression. In the hustle and bustle of this season, with the myriad of decisions to be made and the number of messages to prep, it's easy to find yourself staring at the ceiling when you should be deep in sleep. If you sense worry or fear nipping at your heels (or mounting a full-on assault), here are a few things I have found helpful to find rest in the midst of the journey.

1. Name what is keeping you up at night. We have a Shepherd who leads and guides us, but we can get our eyes off Jesus and panic over what swirls around us. I've learned that while we talk a lot about our anxiety, anxiety isn't a thing—it's a symptom of something else. Some other giant casts the shadow of anxiety over our lives. So take a moment and dig down to the roots of your sleeplessness. Then, be honest with God and say out loud, "_____ is keeping me up tonight." Name it (or him or her) and hand it to Jesus.

2. Let God carry it. Follow the Philippians 4:6 battle plan to combat anxiety: "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God." Whatever is stressing you out, you can leave it in the hands of your Shepherd, the God of the universe. Actually visualize yourself placing the person or situation in the hands of the Almighty.

3. Trust your Shepherd's defensive capability. There's a reason the Good Shepherd carries a rod: He uses it to defend us against anyone and anything that threatens to attack. He's circling the perimeter, counting you, while you sleep. He's awake, aware, and ready to strike whatever comes against you, your family, your Church, or your team.

For His Glory and your good, the giant that's causing your anxiety must fall. I pray that the peace of Christ will continue to rule over your hearts as you pour out your life for the sake of His Church.

For His Fame,

As pastor of Passion City Church and founder of the Passion movement, Louie Giglio urges a new generation to leverage their lives for the fame of Jesus. Since 1997, he has gathered college-aged people at events around the world, uniting millions in worship, prayer, and cries for justice. Louie and his wife, Shelley, make their home in Atlanta, Georgia.

Daniel: The John Walvoord Prophecy Commentary

Edited by Charles H. Dyer & Philip E. Rawley

Perhaps no Old Testament book is as far-reaching in envisioning historical events as the Book of Daniel. In this revised edition of his classic work on premillennial prophecy, Walvoord addresses alleged historical inaccuracies, considers past and future fulfillments of specific prophecies, explores different approaches to interpretation, and examines textual and doctrinal issues. Based on the ESV. 256 pages, hardcover from Moody.

An Exposition of Romans, 14 Volumes

D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones

No New Testament epistle is more foundational to the faith than Romans—and no exposition of Paul's letter is more insightful than that of Lloyd-Jones. Drawn from his messages at Westminster Chapel from 1955 to 1968, this masterful series of sermons blends evangelical interpretation with practical applications to provide sound doctrinal teaching on this fundamental document. 14 hardcovers, from Banner of Truth.

The New American Commentary

1 & 2 Peter and Jude

Thomas R. Schreiner

Highly respected biblical scholar and theologian Schreiner guides readers through the practical yet profound epistles of 1 & 2 Peter and Jude. Focusing on their message that love manifests itself in godly living and that right doctrine must be matched by Christ-like lives, he presents a thorough section-by-section exposition of the intrinsic theological and exegetical concerns. 512 pages, hardcover from B&H.

James Montgomery Boice

The Parables of Jesus

A beloved classic that explores the power of Jesus' parables! Grouping them into five categories—teachings on the kingdom, salvation, wisdom/folly, the Christian life, and judgment—Boice brings Christ's words to bear on life today. Born from a sermon series he once preached, this resource helps believers understand just what Jesus meant and how we ought to respond. 261 pages, softcover from Moody.

The Epistle to the Romans

Richard N. Longenecker

Despite being difficult to interpret, Paul's letter to believers in Rome has played a central role in the formulation of Christian doctrine. Here Longenecker offers a clear analysis that builds on the work of past commentators while remaining informed by modern-day interpreters. His exposition is critical, exegetical, and constructive yet pastoral in its application. 1008 pages, hardcover from Eerdmans.

Crazy Like Us—DVD

Most of us think of ourselves as generous, but are we really? In this 3-part series, Andy Stanley shows the difference between random acts of giving and true charity, how cultivating a new perspective can free you from financial worries, and how to decide where and how much to contribute. Includes discussion questions, a promotional handout, and a sermon intro.

Light of the World—DVD

Christmas is the most wonderful time of the year—but not because of all the things associated with it! In this 3-part DVD study, Andy Stanley reminds us that the nativity narrative—like our own stories—is complicated. He encourages us to see how Jesus overcomes the darkness of anger, shame, and disappointment. Includes three full-length messages, discussion questions, and promotional material. 94 minutes.

Follow—DVD Curriculum

What does it mean to follow Jesus? Religion says, "Change and you can join us." Jesus says, "Join me and you will change." He doesn't demand perfection from us; he longs for our devotion. In Andy Stanley's 8-session DVD study, you'll journey through the Gospels discovering what being a follower truly entails. DVD includes participant's guide.

Why Jesus?

Rediscovering His Truth in an Age of Mass-Marketed Spirituality

Ravi Zacharias

Because the New Age movement and other influences have redefined traditional Christianity, many people question whether Jesus is the only way to God. Discussing the beliefs of Shirley MacLaine, Deepak Chopra, and others, Zacharias explores whether truth is relative, perfection possible, and more—and shows why Jesus' resurrection is the most important argument for Christianity's exclusive claims. 256 pages, softcover from Faithwords.

The Riches and Reach of Adoption in Christ

David B. Garner

Rarely addressed throughout church history, the doctrine of adoption has seen fresh attention in recent years. According to Garner, most contemporary studies have focused on etymological, cultural, and pastoral considerations—instead of the systematic theological concerns. In this groundbreaking work, he examines how adoption frames Pauline soteriology and defines the Trinitarian, familial context of redemption in Christ. 366 pages, softcover from P&R.

The Parables After Jesus

Their Imaginative Receptions Across Two Millennia

David B. Gowler

A lively, thought-provoking survey that sheds new light on Jesus' well-known stories. Presenting selections from the writings of Augustine, William Shakespeare, Emily Dickinson, Martin Luther King, Jr., and other figures from diverse eras, Gowler explores varying interpretations of Christ's parables to demonstrate how they continue to challenge people's hearts, minds, and imaginations. 301 pages, softcover from Baker.

Paul and Gender

Reclaiming the Apostle's Vision for Men and Women in Christ

Cynthia Long Westfall

A respected New Testament scholar, Westfall offers a canon-based Pauline theology of gender that supports and equips men and women to serve wherever their gifts lie. Providing fresh perspective on traditionally controversial passages, she discusses their literary and cultural context, and interprets them in light of their own claims of authorship, recipient, and circumstances. 348 pages, softcover from Baker.

The Fear of the Lord Is Wisdom

A Theological Introduction to Wisdom in Israel

NEW!

Tremper Longman III

From a respected scholar comes a comprehensive discussion of Israelite wisdom literature in the context of the Old Testament and its context in the broader Ancient Near East. Longman asserts that wisdom is understood as practical (the skill of living); ethical (a wise person is a virtuous person); and theological (rooted in the fear of the Lord). 336 pages, hardcover from Baker.

God and the Faithfulness of Paul

Edited by C. Heilig, J.T. Hewitt & M.F. Bird

In this comprehensive volume, international scholars assess an array of issues in N.T. Wright's magnum opus Paul and the Faithfulness of God. After placing Wright's work in the context of other Pauline theologies, the contributors address methodology, contextual problems, exegetical decisions, and the implications of this landmark study. Includes a critical response from Wright. 832 pages, softcover from Fortress.

His Needs, Her Needs—DVD Curriculum

Is it true that married men want "recreational companionship" and "a good-looking wife," whereas women crave affection and financial support? Willard Harley says yes—and reveals more differing priorities that he believes separate the genders. Based on his longtime bestseller and hosted by Harley and his wife, Joyce, this 6-week interactive study is designed for use in premarital counseling and couples' retreats.

All Things New—DVD Curriculum

FREE lesson online

A revolutionary 4-session Bible study built around one revolutionary idea: Heaven is not an eternal church service in the sky! In this heart-stirring curriculum, John Eldredge explains that though our culture often depicts the afterlife as vague and boring, real hope begins to surge when we realize that God will make all things new—including art, music, food, and laughter.

How to Choose a Bible Study

Why start a small-group Bible study? Ask any of the thousands of believers who already gather in coffee shops, college dormitories, and living rooms worldwide. They'll tell you . . . the benefits of studying God's Word together are endless! Not only will you strengthen bonds of fellowship and friendship within your church, you'll find that "where two or three are gathered in Christ's name," Scripture comes alive in wonderful new ways. Your group will be empowered not just to better understand and remember God's Word, but to act on it as well!

How can you choose the right curriculum? As in all things, start with prayer—and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you in your decision. Some practical issues to consider: What ages and stages of life are represented in your group? Would you prefer a verse-by-verse, in-depth study of Ephesians, or a topical study that addresses a life issue—like child-raising or stewardship? Will you have a designated teacher or share leadership? (Many resources have built-in helps that allow any member to facilitate the study.) And what format will work best for your group? Do you thrive on interactive workbooks and lively discussions, or are you visual learners, inspired by powerful teaching on DVD?

When you're ready to begin . . . You'll find everything your small group needs, right here at CBD! Start by browsing the terrific selection in this catalog, but remember, this is just the tip of the iceberg. You'll find thousands more affordable and unforgettable studies online at Christianbook.com. May you be blessed as you dig ever-deeper into the riches of God's Word!

God Helps Those Who Help Themselves and Other Things the Bible Doesn't Say

"Everything happens for a reason." "God helps those who help themselves." "Love the sinner, hate the sin." These oft-repeated clichés sound Christian, but do they have anything to do with Scripture? In this 5-week study, Hamilton goes beyond the half-truths of common sayings to reveal the deeper wisdom of God's Word. 144 pages, hardcover from Abingdon.
