A Story of God and All of Us

A Novel Based on the Epic TV Miniseries The Bible

Roma Downey & Mark Burnett

Experience Christian history like never before! Based on the epic miniseries from the History Channel, this collection of stories from the Bible reads like a fine novel, dramatizes important events, makes men and women of Scripture come alive in vivid detail—including Moses, David, Daniel, and Jesus—and reveals the prophetic significance of the empires that controlled Israel. 256 pages, hardcover from Faithwords.

Lincoln's Battle with God

Stephen Mansfield

Was Abraham Lincoln a skeptic or a Christian? Tracing the beloved president's spiritual journey from an outspoken atheist to a seeker who longed to walk in Christ's footsteps, Mansfield paints a portrait of a man who wrestled with biblical truth, preachers, doctrines, God's will, and God's purposes during the Civil War. A must-read for American history buffs! 272 pages, hardcover from Nelson.
