Session One

HAVE YOU FACED THE MYTHS OF MARRIAGE WITH HONESTY?

What you believe about marriage will become the fuel for your behavior in marriage. For this reason, exploring the myths of marriage is essential.

JUST FOR FUN

(4 MINUTES)

Whether you are doing this as an individual couple or as a small group of couples, take a moment to name one of the most romantic movies you've ever seen. It could be The Notebook, The Fault in Our Stars, Sleepless in Seattle, Casablanca, Titanic, Father of the Bride, When Harry Met Sally, or any of the hundreds of other romantic stories. What makes this movie so romantic to you? Do you see yourself in it? From your perspective, what's the primary message of the movie? If you don't like this line of questioning, name a romantic movie that you didn't like. Why?

What items did you have to renegotiate?

TIME TO DISCUSS

(20 MINUTES)

1. Which ideas expressed in the video were new to you?

2. Which concept talked about in today's session can you apply to your relationship?

3. In what areas of your life is your relationship operating as an A, H, or M?

4. What other myths do couples bring to the marriage relationship?

YOUR SYMBIS ASSESSMENT

If you are using the SYMBIS Assessment, review the Context section of your report (pages 5–7). What myths of marriage might you debunk as a result of seeing this personal information on these pages? For example, “we are going to do everything together,” is a common misbelief. Page 7 of your report will make this plain.

TAKING TIME AS A COUPLE

To further explore marital myths you may have believed, spend some time this week as a couple reading chapter 1 and completing exercises 1, 3, 4, and 5 in the workbook. If you have time, also discuss the reflection questions with your partner.
