The Early Church Fathers (38 Volumes) represent the first primary sources of Christian history following the canon of the New Testament, and as such are invaluable resources for the serious student of early Christian history, doctrine, and ethics. The Early Church Fathers consists on the following 3 sets which are also available separately:

The Ante-Nicene Fathers (10 Volumes) ranges from the Apostolic Fathers to various third and fourth century sources including the liturgies and ancient Syriac documents. It was intended to comprise translations into English of all the extant works of the Fathers (with the exception of the more bulky works of Origen) down to the date of the first General Council held at Nicaea in 325 A.D. The basic aim of the translations has been to strive for literary exactness, placing the English reader as nearly as possible on an equal footing with those who are able to read the original.

The Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Series I (14 Volumes) consists of eight volumes of the writings of St. Augustine, the greatest and most influential of the early Church Fathers, and six volumes of the treatises and homilies of St. Chrysostom, one of the great preachers of the early church.

The Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Series II (14 Volumes) contains in fourteen volumes the works of the Greek Fathers from Eusebius to John of Damascus and the Latin Fathers from Hilary to Gregory the Great. Several of the writings appear for the first time in English. The first three volumes are a complete collection of the historical writings of the Fathers, whose permanent value as primary sources is universally acknowledged. Other volumes contain the works of eminent figures in early Christian history, such as Athanasius, Jerome, and Ambrose. The series concludes with the canons and decrees of the seven ecumenical councils, as well as canons of local synod with ecumenical acceptance.

General Editor: Phillip Schaff (1819-1893), who was born in Switzerland, was educated at Tubingen, Halle, and Berlin, and later took a position as Professor of Church history at German Reformed Seminary in Mercersburg, Penn., and Union Theological Seminary in New York. He was involved in the formation of the Evangelical Alliance, the revision of the English Bible (the Revised Version), and the Alliance of the Reformed Churches. Schaff was founder of the American Society of Church History and was the author of The History of the Christian Church (8 volumes).

The Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church
Sts. Aur. Augustin and John Chrysostom
The second half of the Writings of the Early Church Fathers, The Writings of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, comprises 28 volumes in print and is divided into two series of 14 volumes each. These volumes cover the important writings of the church from the first council at Nice (circa 325 a.d.) through the Seven Ecumenical Councils. This first set of 14 volumes contains a select library of St. Aurelius Augustin (Vols. 1 through 8) and St. John Chrysostom (Vols. 9 through 14).

"My purpose is to furnish ministers and intelligent laymen who have no access to the original texts, or are not sufficiently familiar with ecclesiastical Greek and Latin, with a complete apparatus for the study of ancient Christianity. Whatever may be the estimate we put upon the opinions of the Fathers, their historical value is beyond all dispute. They are to this day and will continue to be the chief authorities for the doctrines and usages of the Greek and Roman Churches, and the sources for the knowledge of ancient Christianity down to the age of Charlemagne."
