Faith That Endures

J. Dwight Pentecost

Through practical, verse-by-verse analysis, Pentecost shares insights into achieving victory amid adversity. He demonstrates how the writer of Hebrews encouraged patient endurance by demonstrating Christ's pre-eminence—as incarnate revelation from God, as redeemer and ruler superior to Moses, and as priest greater than Aaron—and applications for believers today. 224 pages, softcover from Kregel.

James M. Hamilton, Jr.

Parallels abound across Scripture between people, places, and events. How are we to understand these similarities? Exploring several "promise-shaped" patterns in the Old Testament—including Adam and the New Adam; prophets, priests, and kings; and the Righteous Sufferer—Hamilton traces the organic development of these types to show how they created expectations that are fulfilled in Christ. 384 pages, hardcover from Zondervan.
